SNOW STOPS BOWIE RACING

BLIZZARD RAGING ALONG ATLANTIC COAST INTERRUPTS SPORT IN MARYLAND.

Saturday's Card Is Declared Off and a New Program Is Prepared for Monday, When the Sport Will Be Resumed-Hugh Penny at Death's Door.

Baltimore, Md., April 3.—A severe blizzard that set in early this morning and covered the ground to a depth of several inches was responsible for the cancellation of Saturday's racing card at the Bowie course. The decision was not arrived at until noon time, when track conditions became so treacherous as to be unsafe for the thoroughbreds and riders. The card scheduled for today was declared off and new entries were prepared for Monday, when the sport will be resumed with a seven-race card that has filled heavily.

prepared for Monday, when the sport will be resumed with a seven-race card that has filled heavily.

Hugh Penny, who was rushed to the Johns Hopkins hospital yesterday suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia and pleurisy, is so low that the attending physicians have little hope of his being able to live beyond Sunday.

Among the arrivals today was Archie Zimmer, who intends to campaign a strong stable on the metropolitan tracks. Jockey C. Turner is to do his riding.

The funeral of Mrs. Hart Derpham was held riding.

The funeral of Mrs. Hart Dernham was held today. Interment was in Louden Park cemetery. There was a large offering of floral designs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Father Walsh of Park Heights avenue church and the funeral was attended by a considerable number of turfmen. The pall bearers were James Arthur, Richard E. Watkins, Richard L. Jones and Arthur N. Elrod.

WINDSOR'S GOOD STAKE PROGRAM.

Detroit, Mich., April 3.—Horse owners will not be racing for their own money at Windsor this year, as all of the stakes are of the added money variety. STAR JUVENILE IN WALLACE STRING.

Lexington. Ky.. April 3.—William Wallace's string for the season's racing numbers ten, of which the big bay two-year-old colt by Duke of Ormonde—Gold Lace is counted the star member. He is the joint property of Mr. Wallace and his friend, Thomas C. Bradley, sheriff of this county, they having purchased him out of the Macdonough dispersal sale of last September for 8000. During the winter, after it became noised about that he lad shown sensitional speed at Latonia last fall. Mr. Wallace priced him at the property of Mr. Wallace in the cast, This colt's name is Big Smoke, not, however, in thought of Jack Johnson. It is the nickname given to Sheriff Bradley by Mr. Wallace's young son, who thinks the sheriff is about the biggest man in every respect in the entire community. Big Smoke is just rounding out of a case of cracked heels and for that reason his name has not figured in the reports of the speed trials at the Kentucky Association track, but Wallace says it will not be long before he is leard from in the morning rallops. Another two-year-old have holded in the control of the speed trials at the Kentucky Association track, but Wallace says it will not be long before he is leard from in the morning rallops. At nis death, Col. Milton Young, in the eighthes became its owner and continued it as a breeding place for thoroughbreds until the fall of 1908, when he dispersed his stud and sold the farm to the Beasley brothers, saddle horse and cattlemen Their profits on the deal is considerably over $50,000.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

The attendance at Bowie on the opening day sceeded 5,000.

J. Walter Lissberger is a recent addition to the ranks of New York owners. He purchased Syosset and Bevelry James at the Stevenson dispersal sale and turned the first named over to Silas Veitch to train. The three-year-old he left in the care of James McLaughlin, Jr. The two will be raced over the hunt courses and possibly the larger tracks. The Lissberger silks will be gray with gold sash and gray cap.

H. E. Nelson, of Chicago, and Austin Estabrook, of Cleveland, will turn over their filly, Welcor, by Dick Welles—Coruscate, to James Everman to train on his return from Havana. Mr. Estabrook owns Lone Star, now racing at Juarez, and at the close of that meeting he plans to ship him east and school him for the jumps. Lone Star is a big, strong horse, with plenty of speed, He is by the same sire as that good jumper Chupadera.

W. T. Anderson has eleven racers stabled at Gravesend, as only three of his string were shipped to Bowie. Those at the Maryland course are Star Gift, Pascinating and Joe James. The last named is a four-year-old maiden and a half-brother to Star Giff. Mr. Anderson has a smart two-year-old filly in Renard, a strapping daughter of Voter.—Prinzessen, and accordingly a half-sister to f Royal Message. Mr. Anderson intends to go along leasily with this filly and does not expect to send, her to the post before August.

Use of Electric Battery on Forgo.

El Paso, Tex., April 3.—The racing at Juarez today was again of the routine type. All seven races carried selling conditions. While none of the day's winners was at long odds, some of them came from rather unexpected quarters. Sam Connor and Lackrose were the only favorites that succeeded in scoring.

Ooma was well backed as first choice for the opening race, but retired after showing a good measure of early speed and was not among those that shared in the money. The Shrimp, by getting to the finish first, in advance of Golf Ball and Kitty Stanfield, graduated from the madden class.

Sam Connor found if easy to win the second from Wap and Reseas. Bird Man made a miserable showing as favorite for the third, in which Marta Mac came from behind to beat out Dolf Boy, which had set the pace.

Sam Connor found if the speed to lead all the way, but Mazulk, the second choice, was pressing him closely at the end. B. A. Jones was the disappointment of the fifth. He had his usual speed, but failed to stay and finished unplaced. The purse went to Twilight.

Spindle made a bold bid for the sixth, and came within a neck of overtaking Canapa, which had led all the way. Art Rick was a well-backed favorite in this race and was third at the finish. The final race enabled D. Boland to score his second success of the day when he piloted Senator James to victory over Azurea and Rose Ring.

The apprentice rider, M. Garner, signalized his return to the saddle by winning with Sam Connor and Twilight.

Kay Spence claimed Mazuk out of the fourth race for $650. R. Ripley, the owner of Mazuk, plant of the saddle of the sale had been sold on the condition that he should pull up sound after the race. The stewards awarded the horse to Spence, as no record of the sale had been made before the race.

The stewards questioned T. B. Moots, the owner of Forge, which broke down in the last race, regarding a battery that was supposed to have been used on the horse. Moots admitted having it in his possession this mo

HAVANA MEETING TO CLOSE TOMORROW.

Havana, Cuba, April 3.—Racing was once more renewed at Oriental Park this afternoon over a track that was about as beavy as any that has prevailed all season. All the winners came to the finish unattended.

A big crowd is expected at the track tomorrow and the meeting will come to an end Monday with a card that will be run immediately after the Johnson-Willard championship fight is over.

RECALLS DERBY RACE OF LONG AGO.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—Great expectations are entertained of the coming Kentucky Derby race. This famous $10,000 added three-year-old stake will be decided this season at the Louisville course that has been known for forty years as Churchill Downs, the home of the New Louisville 'Jockey Club, of which Charles F. Grainger is president and M. J. Winn is manager.

This famous $10,000 added three-pear-old stake will be decided this season at the Louisville course that has been grown for forty years as Churchill Downs, the home of the New Louisville lockey Club, of Winn is manager. This spring the screat event will be run on Saturday, May S. the opening day of twelve days of the sport at this course, ending on Friday, May 21, when will be decided the Kentucky Oaks, a race which has a history as long as that of the Derby and the winners of which include many tort queens. Senator Grady made the best showing of the pair in the great Derby race. He made all the running until Rey el Santa Anita took the lead away from him at the end of about 1 1-8 miles and then, withstanding the challenge of the other contestants, lasted to take second money. As to the winner, the California colt's victory was clean cut and decisive. After 1 1-8 miles he ran away from his company at will and won with marked ease. Later on in his career he held his own with such horses as Henry of Navarre and Clifford and will ever enjoy a high rank among the Derby winners of America.

STARS IN MEMORIAL HANDICAP.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—The Memorial Haudicap, which will be the feature on Decoration day at Douglas Park, has plenty of good racing material to draw from, judging from the entry list as announced today by General Manager John Hachmeister. This handicap at six furlongs will be the first six-furlong sprint in Kentucky this season, in which the crack sprinters of the country will engage. The entry list closed with fifty-eight nominations, and out of this list it looks as though a field of ten or twelve horses of the best available racing material in America should go to the post. All of the crack two-year-olds of last year, together with the best of the older division, are eligible.

Harry Payne Whitney has entered Borrow, his great Hamburg geldling and Harmonicon, the champion sprinter of England for the last two years. Both of these horses are American-bred and raced with marked success in England. Other newcomers to Douglas Park will include Sir Edgar, from the Bedwell stable; High Noon and Last Coin, two of James Butler's cracks; A. B. Hancock's Gaelic; J. W. Hedrick's Sherwood and Jesse Jr.; W. R. Mizell's Robert Bradley; Quincy Stable's Quincy and Hanovia, and Banquet and Intone, from the stable of A. H. Morris. The Douglas Park meeting will open May 22 and close June 5. The entries for the Memorial Handicap follow:

R. L. Baker's John Gund, Constant and Doctor Samuel.

W. H. Baker's Roscoe Goose and Doctor Larrick.
H. G. Bedwell's Sir Edgar.

MINIMUM PURSE WILL BE $400.

In another column will be found the formal announcement of the Business Men's Racing Association of New Orleans, of the dates and plans for the second annual winter meeting commencing January I and ending Mardi Gras day, March 7. The meeting will be longer than last winter, when forty days of racing were given, the coming meeting extending over fifty-six days of racing. This addition is due to the late date of Mardi Gras.

As the plan of betting has been approved by the district attorney and grand jury, there will be nothing to mar the success of the meeting, which promises to produce brilliant sport. The announcement that no purse of less than $400 will be given is in line with the policy of the association to give as much as it can afford to the horsemen. Last winter it voluntarily raised the purses from its announced amount and the promise is held out that the overnight handicaps will be increased as the business warrants. An attractive list of stakes will be announced later.

The officials will be the same as those of last winter, Joseph A. Murphy acting as manager and presiding judge, A. B. Dade as starter, and Joseph McLeman and Jack Campbell completing the competent official corps.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

By almost superhuman efforts, the Russians between the Lupkow and Uszok passes have driven the Austrians backward upon the heighths and have seized the railway leading through Vola Michova and Lupkow southward into Hungary, according to dispatches received at Petrograd. South of the Dukla pass, where the Russians have intrenched in the foothills, the Austrians have abandoned their attacks. Both sides apparently are awaiting the result of the great combat for possession of the Lupkow and Uszok passes. The remnants of the Austrian force that invaded Russian Bessarabia, north of Bukowina, are being forced back on the Russian border. The Russians now are on the offensive along the whole front from the Baltic sea to the Roumanian border. British fears that the Germans are about to initiate a gigantic raid on commerce were revived at Washington when the British embassy received a message from New York stating that seven Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd liners were taking aboard cargoes of coal and making other preparations that indicated a possible intention to send the big vessels to sea. The British expect that if the German raid materializes submarines will be sent ahead of the warships to drive off the battleships and cruisers of the allies. Upon receiving advices that the German liners in New York were coaling. Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, hastened to the state department, and for half an hour was closeted with Secretary Bryan, Counselor Lansing and other officials.

A sensation was caused in naval circles at Washington when it became known that Rear Admiral Bradley A, Fiske, aid for operations in the Navy Department, had tendered his resignation from that office and asked to be assigned to duty elsewhere. Admiral Fiske also asked to be relieved from duty as a member of the general board of the navy, of which Admiral Devey is president. Admiral Fiske tendered his resignation as aid for operations because he is out of harmony with the present administration of the naval establishment.
